

How to Apply for Help

Neighbors helping neighbors since 1942

Henrico Christmas Mother is a nonprofit organization providing holiday assistance to qualified Henrico County families with children, seniors and disabled adults. Applicants must reside in Henrico County and meet Henrico Christmas Mother income guidelines, based on the number of members in the household.

Applications will be accepted for:

- Families with school age or younger children*
- Seniors 65+
- Adults with a documented disability

*School age children must be enrolled in a Henrico County school or an equivalent GED program in order to be served.

To apply:

- Applicants requesting assistance from Henrico Christmas Mother may not apply for assistance from other organizations.
- You must apply in person at our warehouse at 361 Dabbs House Road across from the Eastern Henrico Government Center.
- You must have all of the required documentation listed below with you before you will be allowed to fill out an application.
