Linda R. Melton
2024 Henrico Christmas Mother

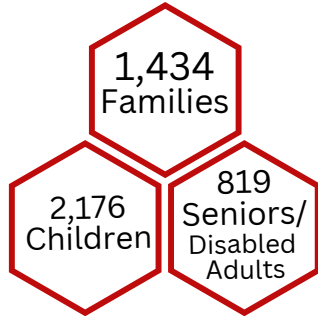

"I've witnessed first hand the impact Henrico Christmas Mother can have in a community. My mother, Charlotte W. Melton, was the 2000 Henrico Christmas Mother. It is an honor to follow in her footsteps."

"I shopped with a family whose 14-month-old son has a severe medical condition –Dad was wearing a backpack for the tubes and machines necessary to sustain his son's life. With a son the same age at home, I could not imagine the worries and fears they face every day. As we shopped, they smiled every time they got to pick out something for their children and they thanked every single volunteer who assisted them. They were beyond grateful for what Henrico Christmas Mother was providing. I was so taken aback by how this organization was giving this family a little bit of joy during the holiday season."

Courtney Easley, long-time volunteer and Chair, Making Spirits Bright Night Planning Committee

Supporting education

School librarians help us choose current books that interest our children and teens.

Helping our neighbors

Parents can choose from a selection of clothing, socks, hats, and gloves to keep kids warm in the winter.

Keeping them warm

Engaging with Seniors

Shopping with a volunteer can brighten an otherwise lonely time for seniors and adults with disabilities.

Making holiday memories

Our toy committee volunteers shop year-round so parents can find the perfect toy for their child.

Feeding families

In 2023, volunteers packed 67,275 pounds of food into boxes to go with the $100,275 in food gift cards distributed, helping provide 66,000 meals for our neighbors.

If you need assistance this holiday season...
